

The Top Ten Reasons for Attending the NADEF Fieldweek

10. You learn to count backwards from 10 again.
9. We don't all wear glasses yet.
8. We don't need a social life.
7. Constant peer review is healthy.
6. It is a strongly practical application of skills learned in kindergarten.
5. We are not afraid to commit to narrowness.
4. The corollary is: complacency is not rewarded.
3. Calling is the most important thing in volleyball.
2. At least the trees can be sensitive.

And, the NUMBER ONE reason to attend the NADEF Fieldweek is...

1. Even snags can get dates.